

Oxford St, London

Phone: 020-2765-2443

royce\_hv@ycmail.com

Objective

To work as a Venture Capital Executive for a large investment house.

Professional Experience

1998 – Present: Venture Capital Analyst, Goldman Sachs International, London

- Attend trade exhibits in various industries to check on new companies in sunrise industries with potential for development and growth.
- Study market and product researches conducted by venture capitalist analysts as well as securities analysts and think tanks studies.
- Visit and interview prospective business owners and conduct observation visits to manufacturing facilities and business practices.
- Conduct due diligence on new companies identified as potential investments options and provide executive reports to capital investors.
- Represent venture capitalist in stakeholder meetings or assume board seat when assigned by the company.
- Check with banks and financing companies on small enterprises with loan repayment problems to identify and help those with promise to grow with proper investment and right management team
- Update stakeholders on progress of investments.

Skills

- Extensive experience in financial management
- Above average organizational and computational skills
- Excellent verbal communication and interpersonal skills

Achievements

Cited by management in 2009 for initiating financial rescue plan for promising companies that have since become highly profitable

Education

2001 – 2003: MBM, Oxford University

1994 – 1998: BS Accountancy, University of Aston, Birmingham.

Reference

Can be provided upon request